FORMER NAPANEE LADY SUCCEUMBS TO HER INJURIES

Mrs. Robert Temple Was Victim of Windsor
Street Car Crash

1931

FRANK BOYES STRICKEN

Napanee, Sept. 12— Word was received here yesterday that Mrs. Robert Temple of 561 Josephine avenue, Windsor, had passed away in the Border City Hospital after her right arm had been amputated as a result of severe lacerations received in that disastrous street car accident of Tuesday night.

Immediately on receipt of the news the deceased's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Sweet, who reside on the Belleville Road, left by train for Windsor where the funeral service of their daughter will be held Saturday after which the remains will be sent to Napanee for interment on Monday.

Besides her husband and two children, Albert 10, and John 6, the deceased is survived by her parents, one sister, Charlotte, Reg. N., and two brothers, Percy of Port Colborne and Earl of Napanee.

The late Mrs. Temple, who before her marriage was Beatrice Sweet, moved to Windsor after her marriage over eleven years ago and had resided there practically all that time.

Mr. Temple was also in the car accident and was unconscious from shock but has recovered sufficiently to accompany the remains here, due to arrive via C.N.R. at midnight Saturday.

Man, 102, Eager To Cast Ballot

Campbellford, March 6—John Wesley Sweet of Campbellford, marked his 102nd birthday at the home of his son, Wesley R. Sweet here today. Mr. Sweet was born in Napanee, the son of the late David Sweet and Sarah Cadman. His parents came to Canada from New York State during the war of 1812.

Mr. Sweet's wife, Agnes, died in 1941. He has lived with his son in Campbellford since then. He is in good health and although his eyesight has failed during the past few years, his mind is alert and he has a keen interest in current events. He is looking forward to casting his ballot in the March 31 elections, in favor of his son, Wesley Sweet, Liberal candidate for Northumberland.

Mr. Sweet's family consisted of eight sons, five of whom are living. They are Wilson of Toronto; Rodney of Detroit; George of Kalamazoo, Mich.; Roy of Detroit; and Wesley of Campbellford. Mun. 7, 1958

Ottawa, March 6 (CP)—CCF Fr Leader Coldwell said tonight if Ne either the Progressive Con- Fo servatives or Liberals are elect- Cr ed March 31 "we will be back O to the situation where the peo- be ple knock in vain at the door spe of the government." and

He said the only way to in- H sure that control of Parliament N will rest with the people was Mir to elect a CCF government. mic Election of a Conservative gov- are ernment would mean a return of the cabinet government instead of T parliamentary government. ed r fication

His speech was recorded for bert broadcast over the CBC's Trans- Th Canada network. ed t

Mr. Coldwell said Prime Min- John ister Diefenbaker called a band winter election because the Con- conj servative Party is "hungry for wint power, hungry for the same pow- Bal er the Liberal cabinet had be- Ott fore it." It wanted a meek and mon subservient majority like the eral former Liberal government had. poste when

Mr. Diefenbaker said he The wanted a majority but "every- says one knows that the Conserva- Fede tive cabinet was assured of a offic majority for any good legisla- ficer tion that might be introduced. pare In fact, the majorities in favor be of the government on any of its fee legislation were never less than A 100." lot

The CCF leader said Mr. Al Diefenbaker had stated that the last Parliament was intolerable.
"It wasn't intolerable to the people," Mr. Coldwell said.
